FREDERICK MARLATT BELL-SMITH was born in London, England, in 1846. He studied at South Kensington and in Paris under Courtois and others. Coming to Canada in 1867, he settled in Toronto in 1888. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Academy and the Ontario Society of Artists. He was one of the first Canadian Artists to paint the Rockies, and had the honour of a personal sitting from Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, in connection with his painting of "The Funeral of Sir John Thompson." He died on the 23rd June, 1923.
